About GameBreaker

WHY GAMEBREAKER?

- Original soft-shell headgear pioneer since 2001.
- More than 20 years focused on athlete protection.
- Multiple Virginia Tech 5-Star rated products.
- Powered by D30® impact protection technology.
- Trusted by NFL, NCAA, high school, and youth programs.
- Protection solutions across multiple sports and age levels.

OUR MISSION

For more than 20 years, GameBreaker has led the development of soft-shell protective equipment designed to help athletes play with confidence. What began as the original soft-shell football headgear has evolved into a complete lineup of protective products used across football, flag football, soccer, rugby, and more.

GameBreaker Headgear and the AURA Protective Headband have earned multiple Virginia Tech 5-Star ratings, reinforcing our commitment to athlete protection and innovation.

D30® MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

D30® delivers advanced impact protection through soft, flexible, rate-sensitive materials that help absorb and disperse energy while maintaining comfort and mobility.

VIRGINIA TECH HELMET RATING SYSTEM

Virginia Tech's independent STAR rating system evaluates helmets and headgear based on their ability to reduce head impact risk. Multiple GameBreaker products have earned 5-Star ratings, helping athletes, coaches, and organizations make informed equipment decisions.
